Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1958, being of sound mind and body, realizing that the close of our school days are near at hand, think it wise to leave something to those who in the future will undertake to fill our places.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Fugate, our superintendent, and Mr. Odom, our principal, we leave our heartfelt gratitude for their helpfulness and co-operation in leading us to our goal.

ARTICLE II

To our sponsors, Mrs. Myra Whitley and Miss Marie Sawyer, we leave our gratitude for constructive criticism and guidance through all our struggles.

ARTICLE III

To the faculty, we leave our wishes that the oncoming students will be more willing to abide by the rules and regulations.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we leave all the trouble and fun that we've had during our senior year.
To the Sophomores, we leave our intelligence to aid them throughout their remaining years.
To the Freshmen, we leave our long hours spent working for that little white diploma.

ARTICLE V

Earlene Adams and Yvonne Bullock leave their ability to settle for one man to their sisters. George Ayers leaves his history to anyone who needs it to graduate. Gerald Bailey leaves his superior marks to all the failing Juniors. Gail Barnes leaves her French Book to anyone who will take it. Addie Glynn Batts leaves her sympathy to all those left behind. Billie Jean Boyette leaves her position as head cheerleader to Elnora Johnson. Aubrey Cobb leaves all his teachers (At Last). Carol Davis leaves her 95's in typing and shorthand to Charlotte Batts and Catherine Davis. Gene Davis leaves his love for James Earl Henderson to Bobby Cobb. Nancy Doles just leaves - - - happily. Llewellyn Dunn leaves her strong lungs and energetic cheering ability to anyone who has that "tired, run-down" feeling. To Jerry Quinn goes Patsy Farmer's 90's. Tommy Flowers leaves his ability to go steady to Joe Owens. Clifton Gardner wishes to leave his skill in driving a school bus to his brother, James. Tommy Gay leaves his ability to tell good jokes to Mr. Fugate. Josephine Godwin leaves her quietness to any loud-mouthed Junior. Margie Godwin leaves her 90's to anyone willing to work for them. Martha Greene leaves her superlative, Most Courteous, to her sister, Nancy, and hopes she will use it. Dolores Harrell leaves her love for typing to Sylvia Owens. Mary Hill is going to be selfish and take everything with her. J. P. Holland leaves his desks in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping to anyone who wants them. Bobby Jones wishes to leave his seat in Mr. Odom's office to Gerald Winstead. Carl Langley leaves his love for basketball to Tommy Langley. Johnny Langley leaves his ability to be tardy without getting caught to William Langley. Patsy Langley leaves to Elnora Johnson her ability to go steady for three years. Ruby Langley leaves her split personality to Ernestine Batts. Ethel Matthews leaves to Jeannette Farmer all her 90's in World History. Alice O'Briant leaves her crutches to next year's basketball team. Brenda Owens leaves all the energy she never used rushing from class to class to Shelia Page. Judy Petway leaves to her cousin, Bobby Cobb, her literature book in hopes that he understands it better than she does. Bobby Joe Pridgen leaves his skinny legs to Fred Thorne. To William Langley goes Royce Quinn's ability to skip school. Nancy Rackley leaves her seat in the back of the room to anyone who thinks the teacher won't call on you back there. Lynn Sharpe leaves her ability to skip school until basketball practice to her sister, Dianne. Ann Sutton leaves all her twelfth grade books to Delphia Webb. To her sister, Rachel, goes Jeanette Thorne's position as first string guard. Claudia Tolston, being a new student, leaves her friendship to all, in return for all she received at the beginning of school. George Williams receives Dianne Valentine's ability to play the same instrument for four years. Randolph Walston leaves his knowledge (???) in bookkeeping to anyone who is willing to take it next year. Alan White leaves his ability to play football to Tommy Joyner. Bruce Williams leaves his excess weight to Fred Thorne. Elijah Williams leaves his school financial problem to his sister, Martha. To his brother, Ronnie, goes Frank Williford's three years in general math.

We, the Senior Class of 1958, realizing that we are at the crossroad of our lives, do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament on this, the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.

Laura

It really has been nice knowing you all these years, growing-up, and going to school with you. We really have been a long way since the first grade when we used to fuss up pots-and-socks in five minutes and the third grade that was silly too. We used to have our differences but haven't. We had a lot of good times together. Remember the day we went out to Conners, and "Lady" ran a way with me. It was funny. I didn't think it to support back on it. I guess I must have been a funny looking sight. I'm glad you find about. Well - on and off. We'll be glad to hear of you in England. I hope you haven't. Especially English. I've miss you if I could. I'd tell you how well I'm. Kind. The same old, old and over, but a million words of it. Best of luck to a very sweet and cute girl and a very good friend.
